

Kristine

It is with extreme gratitude and so much love that I thank you for taking the time to view my profile book.

hello to you.

It is a true honor to be connected with you during such an important time in your life. My hope for you is that you will find peace and comfort in reading my profile book.

My journey to motherhood has been challenging, but also filled with hope. After years of attempting to get pregnant, with the help of doctors, I learned that I am unable to have children. While it was difficult news to hear, I truly believe that life has a way of pointing us in the right direction, even if the timing and circumstances are not what we expect. I feel grateful to have been guided to adopt a child and even more grateful to have been guided to you at this very moment.

with so much love, Kristine a little about me.

I am excited to tell you a little bit about my life, which I hope to share with a child someday. I am a morning person who enjoys a good sunrise. I am a believer in God and an animal lover. I appreciate the outdoors, celebrate my Irish heritage (and my red hair), enjoy hiking and camping, like being close to the water, love listening to music, and find any reason to spend time with family and friends.

welcome home.

please stay awhile.

I live in a sweet, little one-story house located in a wooded neighborhood close to the mountains. The house is surrounded by nature, sounds of children playing outside, wildlife, and vibrant colors. The inside is very cozy, welcoming, and peaceful.

family first.

I am the youngest of four children of a blended family. We are all very close and enjoy spending time together outdoors, eating family dinners, and having family game nights. We support each other through both good and challenging times. A true joy of mine is seeing my parents as grandparents, and they both are very much looking forward to having another grandchild in the family.

favorite things.

snowy weather.

family vacations.

playing with my kitties.

religion.

I will support and foster my child's personal, spiritual journey wherever it may take them, like my parents did for me.

I will encourage my child to follow their dreams and find a career that makes them happy. When I am a mother, I plan to continue working, as I do now as an executive director of a law firm, and gracefully juggle life and work to provide the best for my family.

auntie to all.

Life is better when you can see it through the eyes of a child. I am so fortunate to have relationships with my nieces, nephews, and my friends' children. I find true joy in creating memories and laughing with them.

life is better with friends.

I enjoy spending time with friends who I have met from all walks of life. We go out to dinner, go to concerts, travel together, spend time outdoors, and visit local tourist spots.

mothering.

I will connect with my child on a deep level, providing them with tools to live a happy and healthy life where they feel safe and seen.

education.

Continuing to grow and learn are important parts of life, I will support my child each step of their learning journey and encourage them to take every opportunity to learn new things.

my values.

be kind.

be yourself.

Thank you again for taking the time to learn about me.

with love, Kristine
